THE LIBERTY PARADE

MOST INDIVIDUAL DEMONSTRATION EVER MADE IN GLENDALE. COME ON IN!

Enthusiasm is the word. Everyone is lending a helping hand to make the Parade a big success. The people are anxious to prove to one another that there are no slackers hereabouts. The W. S. S. headquarters has been busy answering many questions at this early date and the community at large is more than anxious to show its loyalty to this very important war activity. The nation is catching the idea of the thrift movement and is daily becoming more fully awake to the lessons it teaches. Thrift leads directly to prosperity. To win the war we must all practice thrift. When the habit is once acquired the practice is easy. During the war the practice of thrift means sacrifice on the part of all of us. But why not? Here at home in comparative comfort should we not be willing to sacrifice for the sake of those who freely offer their lives for us? Even without any great amount of thrift we have known great prosperity in the past. What should we realize in the future after Right and Justice have triumphed over the campaign of scientific barbarism if we acquire this habit of thrift?

Declare yourself by coming out Tuesday evening, June 25th, at 7 o'clock. Line up with your section and follow the High School and go away with a determination to DO.

This district, including Glendale and Casa Verdugo, will be divided into four sections, northeast, northwest, southeast, southwest, the dividing streets being Brand boulevard and Broadway.

People living in the northeast section, all north of Broadway and east of Brand, will assemble on Broadway just east of Central avenue.

People in the northwest section will assemble on Central avenue just north of Broadway.

People living in the southwest section will assemble on Broadway just west of Central avenue.

People living in the southeast section, just south of Broadway.

There will be four chief marshals, one for each section. The northeast will be commanded by D. H. Smith, the northwest by Clem Moore, the southeast by Irving Oliver, the southwest by John H. Logan. These marshals will appoint assistants.

The parade will start promptly at 7 o'clock in order that the ceremony may be over by eight. It is not the purpose of the committee in charge to subject the people to a long, tiresome evening. They have arranged for a service to last only one hour, including the march of a few short blocks and ending at the High School, where the brief program will take place.

At the command of the officer in charge of the color guard for the flag, the parade will move at 7 o'clock sharp.

The keynote of this demonstration is Thrift, so those in charge have used every effort to steer clear of any expenditure of money whatsoever. No automobiles, no bicycles, not even a wheelbarrow, nothing but the good old-fashioned method of locomotion practiced by our forefathers in the days of the Mayflower, will be seen; a little slow compared with the present, but satisfactory and sure. Get the spirit early and give your support. It's for your country and yourselves.

WELCOME SOLDIERS

GLENDALE PEOPLE WILL ENTERTAIN COAST ARTILLERY BOYS TONIGHT

Miss Alice Frank, who is the assistant of Dr. H. R. Harrower, chairman of the entertainment committee of the Red Cross, has made all arrangements to entertain the boys of the Coast Artillery who are spending a few days on the government rifle range northeast of Glendale.

The Sanitarium band has been secured to give a concert on the lawn at the Sanitarium tonight at 8 o'clock. Mayor G. B. Woodberry will welcome the soldiers and refreshments will be provided for them. All the people of Glendale are asked to come out and give these boys the glad hand. The notice is necessarily short as they just came Tuesday and will probably be here but a short time.

Other communities have been glad to do homage to the boys in khaki who have been in their midst. Glendale must not be a slacker community tonight.

It is understood that other entertainments are being planned for the boys also.

BACK TO CHINA

MR. AND MRS. T. F. MCCREA EXPECT TO SAIL FROM VANCOUVER AUGUST 16TH

Mrs. T. F. McCrea, who was one of the special guests at the wedding of her nephew, Vernon R. Cowser, Monday evening, has stated that she expects Mr. McCrea to join her here for a few hours this afternoon, Wednesday, and that she will return with him to San Diego, not to come back here until just before they leave for Vancouver, from which port they will sail for China August 16th on the Empress of Japan, which will carry an unusually large number of missionaries for the Orient as passengers.

Mr. and Mrs. McCrea are anxious to go back where more than fourteen years of their lives have been spent and to a land which seems home to them. They have not always been in the same place. For instance, they spent a year and a half in Chefoo in northern Shantung, and have also been in Teng Chow Fu, and in Central China. They have found the Chinese a very lovable people, Mrs. McCrea says. While China has not been drawn into the war yet as an ally, thousands of coolies have left China for France and Mrs. McCrea is hoping the war will be over before China becomes involved. She says, however, that there is more or less restlessness in China, particularly in the southern part, where the people are quite different from the more conservative northern population and more easily influenced. This may be due in part, she thinks, to the difference in climate. We think of the Chinese as the yellow race, yet in the north where the McCreas are going, the people, they say, are almost as dark as negroes and a large, fine people physically. They are also superior mentally, in their opinion, although the women are not yet emancipated from the foot binding, in spite of the fact that it is not tolerated in the mission schools. Of course it is not practiced among the Christian Chinese and Mrs. McCrea can see evidences that they are beginning to see the foolishness of it. She says, however, we can have no idea of the conservatism of Northern China. They are perfectly satisfied with things as they were in their great grandfathers' time. Their ancestor worship proves that, and the birth of a son is an occasion for great rejoicing. They love their girls but they do not mean as much to them as the boys for the reason that they marry when from 14 to 18 years of age and go at once to the homes of their husbands and are practically lost to their parents, who may never see them again. They are often betrothed in babyhood under a contract made by a middleman, and the bride and groom have nothing to say about it. They are great fatalists and take what comes with philosophy. They have a saying which when translated means, "It is so and can not be helped," and that, Mrs. McCrea says, expresses their attitude toward life in many things. The home life is often not happy because husband and wife are not congenial. Sometimes immediately after marriage a husband leaves a wife when, on seeing her, he finds she is considerably older than he is, and is not pleasing to him. The woman accepts such things patiently because she does not know she could be happy. On the other hand they are sometimes very happy together. Among the heathen in China a man will frequently marry a first wife and later take another wife who will be known as the little wife, and that too while the original wife is still living, and frequently there is more love between those second wives and husbands.

China is a great country, Mrs. McCrea says, and subject to great miseries at times. Riots are not infrequent. She and Mr. McCrea have been through one riot, two plagues and two famines, and they still love the country and desire to get back to it. As to government, the bulk of the Chinese, she says, hardly know yet whether their country is a kingdom or a republic. They were so long governed by an alien dynasty that they lost their interest in government and their sense of nationality.

They are an interesting people, however, and appeal strongly to the McCreas, who say they are very appreciative and grateful for everything done for them and that they make splendid servants. The climate where the McCreas expect to go is very like the temperate zone in the United States, with cold winters and hot summers.

WEATHER FORECAST—Fair tonight and Thursday. Foggy along the coast. Continued warmer in the interior. Light northwesterly winds.

GERMANS ATTACK RHEIMS

DESPERATE ATTEMPT TO TAKE CITY IS FRUSTRATED BY FRENCH AT EVERY POINT

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

PARIS, June 19.—A desperate German attempt to take Rheims at any price was blocked last night by the French the war office announced. Using 36,000 men the Germans assaulted on a fifteen mile front forming a complete semi-circle about the northern half of the city. The French repelled them at every point. The fighting was of the most violent order, attacks and counter attacks being frequent.

ITALIAN DRIVE A FAILURE

AUSTRIANS CONCENTRATE ON PIAVE RIVER FRONT, FAILING TO MAKE IMPRESSIONS IN MOUNTAINS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

ON THE ITALIAN FRONT, June 19.—The enemy has failed utterly to make an impression on the mountain front so the fighting still centers in the Piave region. The Austrians are constantly being reinforced and are fighting hard to pierce the Italian line. Italian counter attacks have been successful after each of these attempts. Italians repelled nine assaults against fresh troops on Grappa heights. Three Austrian divisions who crossed the Piave on pontoons have been trapped at the foot of Il Montello. Between the Brenta and the Asiago rivers Italian gains have been reduced. The danger in the Montello sector has been greatly lessened.

LONDON, June 19.—It is semi-officially stated that capture of Austrian officers have admitted that the Italian drive is a failure after appalling losses in nearly all units participating. Italy has a large force of reserves ready to go into the battle line if the drive becomes menacing.

FIRST AMERICAN GAS ATTACK

LAUNCHED AGAINST GERMAN TROOPS NORTH OF TOULE THIS MORNING—COUNTER ATTACK FAILS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY IN LORRAINE, June 19.—The first American gas projector attack was launched against German troops north of Toul this morning, evidently causing heavy casualties. German losses were added to when in attempting a retaliatory attack the wind blew the German gas back into the German trenches.

PERSHING MAY SEND MEN TO ITALIAN FRONT

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, June 19.—It was learned today that it has been left to General Pershing to determine whether American troops can be spared from the West front for action on the Italian front. Italian diplomats say the presence of the Americans would strengthen the Italians and offset enemy propaganda that America is not in sympathy with Italy. Secretary Baker approves of the plan but leaves the decision as to the number of men, etc., to General Pershing.

MAY DECLARE WAR ON TURKEY

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, June 19.—What may be an act of war against the United States occurred when the Turks captured Tabriz, Persia, occupying the American consulate and attacking an American hospital. This may lead to a declaration of war against Turkey.

All prices are f. o. b. mills. The maximum jobber's commission is 15 cents a hundred on car lots to 60 cents a hundred for less than ton lots.

WILSON THIRD-TERM MOVE LAUNCHED

INDIANAPOLIS, June 19.—The move for the re-election of Woodrow Wilson for president in 1920 was launched in the Indiana Democratic convention today. Sam M. Ralston, former governor of Indiana, declared that the exigencies of the times called for Wilson's re-election.

MONROVIA IS HOST

MONTAVILLE FLOWER TALKS TO NEWSPAPER MEN OF SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

The occasion was a meeting of the editors of the country daily papers of Southern California at Monrovia, where they were the guests of the City of Monrovia and of Col. Barry of the Monrovia News; and the writer, the guest of the editor of the Glendale Evening News. Nature has been very kind to Monrovia, or perhaps the redheaded founder of that flourishing little city knew a good place for a townsite when he saw one and chose the location on the brink of Sawpit Canyon, having in mind in his day-dream of the future, not a commercial center but a beautiful community of homes. Saw Pit Canyon cuts quite a large figure from this writer's point of view in the list of assets which Monrovia possesses, for it cuts a gash in the mother mountain which, taken in connection with the other details Nature provided, makes an ideal natural park which the city has made accessible by the construction of a fine road winding about the contour of the mountain, by which the ascent is made with ease (in an automobile) and is at every foot of progress a delight.

The park is free to all comers and as it provides accommodations for picnic parties is well patronized, particularly on Sundays and holidays. The elevation above the town must be a thousand feet or more and the view looking out over the valley in the vicinity of Covina and Azusa, with the deep canyon in the foreground, is one of inspiration. A portion of the party was chaperoned by A. Adams, a prominent banker of the town, and the other by A. R. Mildren, equally prominent as a real estate dealer, both of whom proved themselves to be exceptionally well qualified to make a good impression upon the more or less impressionable visitors and to see to it that no good points of the subject got away. The city has taken in a large section of the mountain with a view to the control of the water supply and of the park, the former being piped through the latter from its source a good distance above.

At the office of the News, which is edited by that veteran newspaper man, "Colonel" George Barry, the visitors first encountered Monrovia hospitality in its concrete and it was certainly pleasant to see and partake of. Col. Barry has made his paper a power in the city which it well represents, and evidently the community has reciprocated, for the substantial and commodious newspaper building (Continued on Page 3)

DR. HARROWER THANKED

Dr. Henry R. Harrower of this city has received a personal letter of appreciation from an officer of the U. S. S. Antigone expressing warm appreciation of the sacrifice made by the doctor in loaning to the U. S. Navy his fine binoculars which were "made in Germany." The ship is in transport duty and the glasses may help materially in the discovery of enemy submarines. It would be a fine thing if the doctor could receive when they are returned, a diary of the experiences through which they pass. If all the things in this country which have been "made in Germany" could be employed to defeat the Kaiser, what a fine thing it would be. The letter follows:

U. S. S. Antigone,
6th June, 1918.

Dear Doctor Harrower:

This is a letter of thanks and appreciation in behalf of the Navy and especially the officers and crew of this ship for having made the personal sacrifice of your binoculars. Your sacrifice, combined with those of other loyal citizens, has greatly helped to relieve the shortage for good glasses—shortage due to the very rapid increase of our Navy and the indispensable use of good glasses.

Perhaps you would be pleased to know where your binoculars are and what service they are rendering. At present they are being used by the fire control officer of this vessel, which is performing transport duty, and has made several successful voyages. No doubt if your glasses could store up some of the visions which have passed through them, they would have some interesting stories to relate to you at the close of the war. Even now there could be a few things of interest.

Again thanking you and assuring you that the best care possible will be taken of your glasses, I remain, Yours respectfully,

R. V. ADAMS,
Ass't Paymaster, U. S. N.
P. S. Your binoculars are marked:
U. S. Navy No. 5690.
Mr. H. R. Harrower, M. D.,
Los Angeles, Calif.

PURE FUN

CLASS DAY EXERCISES OF THE SENIORS SHOW MUCH ORIGINALITY

The Class Day exercises of the seniors, held Tuesday evening in the auditorium of Glendale Union High, were refreshing in their spontaneity and in the novelties introduced. Pure innocent fun was the keynote and the few parents who could be accommodated in the limited quarters in company with the boy and girl guests, seemed to enjoy the occasion as much as their children and were, as often convulsed by the local hits.

Excellent music was furnished by the High School orchestra and there was great enthusiasm during the playing of the march which furnished the measures to which the seniors marched to their appointed places in the audience, and also during the singing of the class song, "Uncle Sammy Take Care of Our School."

The "Class Will," which was about a yard and a half long and well spattered with sealing wax and red tape, was presented very solemnly by Miss Alice Borncamp, in black gown and mortarboard cap, wearing impressive spectacles which she first removed with great deliberation, together with the will, from a long green bag. It was a document in which the class willed not to will, being individually and collectively unwilling to part with their most precious possessions, viz., their health, their good looks, their wit, their wisdom, their self confidence, their winning ways, and all the other characteristics which they feel will be urgently needed in their struggle with the world and in their patriotic contributions to the defeat of the Kaiser.

The address to undergraduates by Norma Lorbeer was a very unaffected satisfactory little speech in which she explained the (to her) surprising assignment of such a part by saying she had been with the class but one year and was therefore perhaps considered fresh and for that reason nearer in feeling and sentiment to the undergraduate. She told the undergraduates not to be discouraged if they sometimes forgot the point of their stories and declared that the best test of a complete education is what one thinks is funny. Regarding her own experience she said: "The first few days in September were terrible, but as soon as I began to take an interest I began to get acquainted. It seems to me no one is ever left out if he takes an interest in all the activities of the school and is up to date with what goes on."

Miss Ruth Lathrop, who made the response for the undergraduates, was a charming ingenue who had difficulty in remembering her speech, but who did not lose out on that account. Her compliments and reverent attitude towards the seniors and the meek, humble place she assigned (Continued on Page 2)

OUTLOOK IN ART DEPARTMENT

There will be a few new requirements in High School courses next year, but no very radical changes. Now that the study of a modern language is no longer a requirement, there will be more chance for variation and for specializing along lines in which students are particularly interested. It looks now as though the art department might be more closely related to domestic science, because Mrs. Bement, head of the sewing department, and other instructors have recommended that students be required to study design and interior decoration. In conformity to this recommendation first-year girls in the sewing classes will hereafter be required to study free-hand drawing. Second-year girls in these classes will be permitted next year to take up designing without free-hand drawing, but that concession will be made only for the year 1918-19. It is done for the purpose of putting Union High in line with other schools in this requirement and the effort is to adjust the matter and make it as easy as possible for the girls.

Miss Terry, head of the dramatic department, is quite as anxious that her pupils should study color and interior decoration. Color is playing such an important part in our everyday life and surroundings, it is felt that some study of it from the art standpoint is very essential.

Miss Muller, the head of the art department, is enthusiastic over the outlook for her students along practical lines. The department specializes on designing and mechanical drawing, both of which can be put to immediate use in commercial ways. Students have done no small amount of work for the Red Cross in the articles they have manufactured and sold for it, and she promises increased activity along that line in the year to come.

"WE'LL NOT FORGET"

(Memento Graduating Class, Glendale Union High School, June 20th, 1918).

As out from these familiar halls, Your eager feet shall turn today,
As higher lines of study calls,
And beckons you to come "this way"— Think not these higher planes to reach By careless steps or idle ease, Experiences of others teach Lessons quite different from these.

The traveler seeking Alpine height Rises by constant effort. See Him gaze with rapture and delight The summit gained. What visions he Now revels in. How came he there?
By "drifting," "floating," nerves agone?
Nay, nay, he to those visions fair Rose step by step "and on and on."

Go, but dream not of lovely bowers, Of landscape beautiful to see;
Of sylvan shade, and birds and flowers,
And "moonshine," transient ecstasy, You'll find the road all rude and rough,
And knowledge fields you'll have to till, Success is yours, full, and enough If you will only say, "I will."

As on the scroll of coming year,
On page of useful lives so fair, Names of the true and good appear, Shall we rejoice that yours are there?
It may not be in lines of wealth, Nor in high state or senate halls, But it may be 'mid peace and health,
"Content to dwell where duty calls."

'Mid smiles and tears, we bid you go We're glad, yet sad to say adieu, We part, and yet how well you know, Our love and prayers will follow you, Then pledge ye now in parting hour,
To parents, teachers, friends here met,
"Love shall be absolute in power, We'll not forget, we'll not forget."

Glendale, Calif. SAMUEL PARKER.

The American soldiers are making a bigger hit along the western front than they did in London, and that is saying a lot.

The German fleet may come out of its North Sea hiding place, but will it get back? That is the question that is giving the Kaiser pause.

GLENDALE LODGE, NO. 331, BIG DOINGS

On Wednesday, June 19, the Glendale Lodge K. of P. will put on a show at the beautiful Palace Grand Theatre on Brand boulevard.
Moneta Avenue Lodge Team will put on the Lesson of Friendship in a manner that will be worth seeing, as the lighting effects at this theatre are excellent.

Stanley B. Wilson will deliver an address on Pythianism and what it stands for, and those who have not heard this eloquent, witty and deep-thinking scholar of the Pythian creed will find it worth their while to go miles to hear him. After the address an excellent moving picture will be shown.

Visor Lodge, organized July 8, 1917, at Tropico, and Miradero Lodge, organized in 1908, are now consolidated under the name of Twin City Lodge No. 331, but will soon have the name changed again to Glendale Lodge.

This performance is being given to wake up more life and enthusiasm in the district for the Pythian Order, and members of other Lodges are requested to attend and fill the house.

The balcony and loges will be reserved for Knights of Pythias and tickets will be sold at 25 cents each, which must be exchanged at the box office. Tickets for children can be procured only at the box office, at 15 cents.

Everybody come and boost.

A WAR NOTICE

Glendale, Calif.,
June 18, 1918.

To the Officers of all Civic, Religious, Fraternal and Literary Organizations in Glendale and Casa Verdugo:

With the full belief of your desire to aid our Government in the present emergency, I am asking you to be present at a very important War Savings Meeting, Friday evening, June 21, at Glendale Intermediate School at 8 o'clock, to meet County War Savings Chairman, Motley H. Flint.

The officers of the various organizations of the city are being called upon to perform this service.

The call has been given.
I await your response.

Loyally yours,

HARRY L. HOWE,
Glendale War Savings Chairman.

COMING ATTRACTIONS

Messrs. Jensen of the Palace Grand Theatre announce that a week from next Saturday, or June 29th, they will put on the war comedy-drama, "The Warrior," which features "Maciste," who was called the biggest and strongest man in the world, and who was killed on the battle front a short time ago. This picture was made only a short time before he went to the front, and it depicts him in a variety of ways, showing how he was able to handle soldiers like puppets. Within the next few weeks the Jensens expect to put on Ambassador Gerard's "My Four Years in Germany."

the undergraduates was the cause of some merriment on the part of the 1918s.

"Land of Mine" and "Sole Mio," sung by the Boys' Glee Club, were enjoyed and then Oran Branscomb, president of the class, in a nice, simple, unaffected speech, presented the class memorial to Principal G. U. Moyses. $25 in war savings certificates, with a promise of more to be purchased out of whatever might remain in the class treasury after all expenses had been paid, these certificates to be held by the school until maturity and then used for the purchase of some needed school property which would be a fitting memorial of the class. He also referred to the $25 invested by the class in new scenery for the stage.

Professor Moyses gratefully accepted the gift on behalf of the faculty, the Board of Education and the school and complimented the class on the patriotism shown in thus lending their money to Uncle Sam during the period of the war and at the same time providing for a fitting memorial. He also said that the scenery and curtains provided by the class would be a constant reminder of their loyalty and good will.

Prof. Harry Howe followed with a strong and eloquent plea for the War Savings Stamp Campaign and for the courteous treatment of the solicitors, who will begin canvassing their districts on Monday. He also referred to the Liberty Parade, from which he felt no patriot could afford to be absent, and stated that after the brief march through a few squares a brief program would be given at the High School consisting of a verse of "America," a verse of our National Anthem, a ten-minute patriotic address, a military salute to the flag, and a prayer, the whole affair not lasting longer than a half hour.

The class prophecy was presented in the form of an exceedingly clever farce in which Margaret Gregg, Genevieve Lang, Daphne Burlingham, Jane Snyder, Margaret Lusby, Milton Brown, and Merritt Brown took part. The scene was placed in the dental office of "Doctor Brown," where a copy of the "Glendale Morning Nuisance" containing all sorts of news items from burglaries to divorces, advertisements of undertaking parlors, dancing schools, hospitals and every other possible or impossible affair or business in which the various members of the Class of 1918 appeared to be engaged, were read by patients while waiting for a place in the dental chair.

In his unique dental operations the doctor employed a whole kit of carpenter's tools from scroll saws to hammers and cold chisels. These were conveyed to him by trolley by his assistants in an upper balcony. The result seemed entirely satisfactory to the patients and his operations, together with the local hits read from the paper, kept the audience in a gale of laughter. Miss Terry, the dramatic teacher, was given credit for very good work in coaching the class for the playlet.

An exit march by the orchestra, during which the class withdrew to the corridor, closed the program.

CHILD CONFERENCE

The Child Conference which was held at the Tropico Presbyterian church Monday under the auspices of the U. and I. club, was a great success. Thirty-six children were brought for inspection by Dr. Maude Wilde, Dr. Chapin and Dr. Hagen, who were accompanied by Mrs. Booth, another expert. Several of the mothers discovered weaknesses and defects in their children of which they were in ignorance and received practical advice as to corrective measures, of which they were most appreciative. The church was decorated for the occasion with yellow coreopsis, and punch and wafers were served throughout the day. Among those who brought children were Mrs. Claire T. Van Etten, Mrs. Charles Phillips, Mrs. Ashton, Mrs. Lovell and Mrs. Kimball. The list of hostesses in charge included Miss Ida Myers, chairman of arrangements, Mrs. A. J. Becker, Mrs. L. E. Richardson, Mrs. Roy Horning, Mrs. H. E. Fry, Mrs. J. W. Ashton.

WAR RELIEF COMMITTEE

The War Relief section of the Tuesday Afternoon Club will hold its last regular meeting on Thursday, the 20th, with Mrs. A. W. Beach, 333 North Brand boulevard. Interesting reports of the year's work will be given at the business meeting following luncheon, after which members and their guests will enjoy a social afternoon.

THEY'LL HELP UNCLE SAM

(By United Press)
CAMP LEWIS, TACOMA, WASH., June 19.—More than 700 Germans, Turks, and Austrians are in training for military service here.

The men are members of the national army, and were transferred here from middle western states when the war department decided not to use in Europe soldiers born in countries with which the United States or its associates are at war. The soldiers in this unit have been naturalized, and will be used for guard duty in the United States.

SUMMER AGRICULTURAL COURSE
To run a series of lectures—a practical course—on farm topics through the summer months, is the plan of Professor Dan E. Clower, head of the agricultural work in the schools at San Fernando.

Mr. Clower does not believe in stopping just because school vacation will come soon, but will carry on his work right through the summer season, not only by the lectures above mentioned, but by practical work in assisting everyone throughout this section to produce the most food possible.

The lecture throughout the summer will number probably ten, each one replete with valuable information and illustrated with stereopticon slides.

Part of these will be given by Mr. Clower himself and for others he will call in experts in every line to assist him.

Then, supplementing his lectures, Mr. Clower will take his classes right into the fields where the problems are to be met and work them out in a practical way.

Warns You In Plenty of Time

Far ahead of you goes the intensely bright road-beam of the McKee Standard Lens. Every obstruction, every irregularity, every danger-point in the full width of the road is shown up clearly. At 300 feet you can read a newspaper held at your knees. At 600 feet the light still searches the road.

The McKee is legal—no blinding light goes above the 42-inch dead-line. All the light goes through the crystal-clear glass down to the road and out to the sides—where you need it. Why risk your life with makeshift devices that must weaken the light in order to comply with the law? Use the safe McKee.

If your dealer cannot supply you, send price, size of lens, model of car direct to us.

McKee Standard LENS

Made by McKEE GLASS COMPANY, Jeannette, Pa.

Distinctive In Appearance

The McKee is free from disfiguring accessories. In the daytime it presents a neat combination of vertical and horizontal prisms of crystal-clear glass. "The cut-glass lens," some users term it, because of its brilliancy.

Night comes, and those prisms get to work with scientific accuracy. The vertical prisms stop 63% of the light (that is wasted by window glass lens) and send it back to the parabolic reflector. Here it is added to the road beam which is held down to the road by the horizontal prisms. The exclusive concave-convex shape gives a bright side light, necessary to safety in passing cars and turning corners.

Personals

Mrs. Olson and daughter Marion are guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Golburn Martin this week.

Miss Marjorie Imler returned last week from the Imperial Valley. Miss Hickman is still there, but is expected home this week.

J. O. Hayes, Republican candidate for governor of California, was a guest of his friend, John Hyde Braly, 205 North Brand boulevard, on Tuesday.

Members of the Thursday Club will enjoy their annual club luncheon Thursday at the home of the president, Mrs. Wesley Bullis, corner of Central avenue and Los Felis road.

We want no slackers on the sidewalk Tuesday evening, June 25th.
We want every patriot, big and little, in the marching lines of the democratic Liberty Parade. If you won't march, stay at home.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Brown of Blanche avenue are building a garage to shelter the fine new Dodge car they have just purchased. They are anticipating a great deal of pleasure from its use.

Tea, with sandwiches and cake, also ice cream, will be served by Mrs.
Pauton. Mrs. Joseph Kirkby at the old Verugo Ranch House in Glendale Heights on Sunday, June 23rd. Proceeds to go to the Red Cross.

Mrs. Jesse Joseph of 1431 West First street left Saturday for San Diego, where she will spend some time with her son, who is a naval instructor. She will be the guest of her daughter-in-law while there, and will be gone about ten days.

Make no engagements for the evening of June 25th—which will be Tuesday evening—because you will be wanted in the Liberty Parade, when all the men, women and children of our city who love their country will be expected to march in line and show their colors.

Miss Melicent Virden of 225 Mira Loma avenue left Thursday for Berkeley. She will be the guest while there of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Wright, noted violinists, who were fellow students of hers when she was abroad. She expects to be gone a month or six weeks.

Do you realize the democracy of Glendale's Liberty Parade which will take place Tuesday evening, June 25th? It is a marching parade and every patriot, man, woman and child is expected to be in line without regard to age, color or previous condition of servitude.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Plume arrived Monday from Camp Kearny, San Diego. He has received his commission and is now Second Lieutenant Plume. He returns to Camp Kearny this afternoon, where he has been assigned to the Signal Platoon of the 160th Regiment. Mrs. Plume will stay a little longer.

Members of the Central Christian Church of this city will go Thursday to Long Beach for their annual donation party and picnic at the Old People's Home in that city, which is supported by the Christian Church denomination. A bountiful stock of good things will be taken and a picnic dinner will be served.

S. W. Shaul of 431 San Fernando boulevard enjoyed in company with old friends a week-end fishing trip in the San Bernardino mountains which was most profitable from the standpoint of fish caught, but which he found altogether delightful. He went by way of Mill Creek Canyon and it was his first experience in that lovely mountain wilderness.

Miss Rebecca Gregg of 206 South Central avenue, who recently returned from the State University, states that Berkeley will not open for the fall term until September 30th.
This is done for the purpose of giving students a longer working period during the summer. The term will not be shortened as the extra time will be taken out of the Christmas holidays.

Mrs. Harold Ryerson, of Madison court, reports that her husband, Lieutenant Ryerson of the U. S. N., has been made instructor in submarine detective work at a new submarine camp which has been established in Atlantic waters since the raid by German submarines. He describes the work as interesting but not so fascinating as the patrol duty, to which he hopes to be soon transferred.

The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Tropic Presbyterian Church will be held Thursday, June 27th, at the home of Mrs. Spaulding on Park avenue. "The Labor Situation" will be the theme of the day. The ladies will study the introductory chapter of a new mission study book and it is hoped that the meeting will be led by Miss Avery of Los Angeles, who has charge of Mission Study for the Los Angeles Presbytery.

BRAIN AND HAND

WASHINGTON PLANS WAR ACTIVITIES, THE CITIZEN MUST ACT

In almost a day Washington has become the principal city of the world, slow-going, ease-loving Washington has thrown off her sloth and become the focus of the eyes of the world. This Washington, yours and mine, is fairly seething with the activities of war that foretell the doom of a false aristocracy that threatens the world. I say activities; I mean the seeds are there, sown in the form of plans which will and must and are germinating into forces for offense and defense. They are finding expression in camps, in ships, in supplies of ammunition and food, which will speak louder to the enemy than any spoken word that the U. S. is in this war to the end, till victory.

These activities may become realities only if you help and I help. Why should we? Because east or west, north or south, it is your Washington and my Washington; it is your plans and my plans, your forces and my forces. And each dollar invested in W. S. Stamps makes more possible the fulfillment of the plans ger-minating there, and makes you and me more worthy to be the descendants of that hardy group of pioneers who established Washington as our city, the city of representatives, the city where all voices mingle together to form the universal voice of this nation.

At present that voice is calling for the pledge of $2,000,000 for War Savings Stamps to build ships. Are we going to answer it so that we may be heard? Or are we going to be satisfied with a feeble effort? Let it not be said that Glendale ever failed to do her best—not her share, but her best.

All officers of organizations, lodges, P.-T. Associations, W. S. S.
Societies, in fact any one especially interested in the present War Savings Stamp Campaign, is asked to meet with the precinct captains and their workers Friday night, June 21, 1918, at the Intermediate school auditorium, on Third street. Motley Flint, L. A. City and County chairman, will be present to address them.

David Black, who was precinct captain of the Casa Verdugo section in the W. S. S. Campaign, has been called to Camp Kearny to take charge of a Y. M. C. A. hall there.
He leaves this Friday. His place in the W. S. S. drive will be taken by R. L. Ferguson, who is going into the work with an enthusiasm that promises great success.

Remember to tell your neighbor about the parade next Tuesday evening. It is Pledge Day. It is the one great opportunity we have of voicing our patriotic loyalty hand to hand with every one in the entire community.

Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Learned of 137 South Maryland street, who have been visiting their daughter, Mrs.
Lloyd Wilson, at Guernsey in the San Joaquin Valley for the past six weeks, have returned by auto bringing with them Mrs. Wilson, who will visit with the family of H. A. Wilson and other old friends here besides her own people.

Soldier boys were on the streets of Glendale last night and at the High School auditorium where the Class Day program was given. They stated that the boys who have come up from Fort MacArthur will be here about a week; that this is their last practice preliminary to transfer to another camp, and they expect to enjoy the interval in Glendale very much. As stated elsewhere, arrangements have been made for an affair in their honor this evening on the lawn of the Glendale Sanitarium, and plans for another evening affair which will probably come off Monday night are simmering. Ladies who wish to co-operate in the last mentioned entertainment are asked to communicate with Mrs. Boettner, Chairman of the Red Cross Shop, 318 Brand boulevard.

This morning while the clouds were thin, an aeroplane was visible flying over Glendale at a considerable height. From the ground it much resembled a big mosquito. Mr.
Butts of the Monarch Company, who watched the flyer, stated that on Sunday the engine in one of the planes which flew here in the afternoon, stopped and the flyer had some tense moments before he succeeded in starting it again. When he did he attempted no more maneuvers but flew directly for his home base. With three fields for flying in Southern California, it is probable that airplanes will be common sights in Glendale this summer. Much work has been done by scouts of the Arcadia station in charting the "pockets" in the air, which it is important to locate for balloon operators.

and its equipment represent Success.
In days gone by Barry was interested in politics and was popularly supposed to have been, to some extent anyhow, one of the powers behind more than one throne. But that was in the time when the ample thatch upon his dome of thought had not put on an altogether wintry aspect, belled at present by the sunny warmth of glowing health and comfortable embonpoint.

Some unsophisticated editor, unaware of the change in the outlook of the veteran editor, hinted at the possibility that on such an occasion as the present when an influential body of the "Moulders of Public Thought" were present, it would only be natural if there should something be doing along political lines—but the bare possibility of the thing suggested was indignantly repudiated by the Colonel with an intimation that the time had long since gone by when he could possibly be lured into taking an interest in anything political.
Of course it was a coincidence that just about that time Friend W. Richardson, our state treasurer, dropped in, and that the Hon. Crombie Allen, the statesman from Ontario, later appeared upon the scene, and there oozed into the sanctum of the News from nowhere in particular, the very wholesome looking presence of the governor of the state, with no brass band accompaniment whatever. But then, Mr. Richardson is only incidentally a state treasurer; his real and all-absorbing interest in life is in his capacity of a newspaper man. for as president of the State Association he is known to all the newspaper men in California except the few who have only recently broken into the fold from the rank outside.
Of course Crombie Allen runs very successfully a daily paper in Ontario and just became a representative of his assembly district at Sacramento in order to show how easy some things are. As for Governor Stephens, it is clearly his duty to be everywhere in the state about this time and he comes as near doing it as the limitations of time, space and human endurance will permit. So there wasn't a bit of politics in the summer air of Monrovia last Saturday afternoon, only a gathering together of a bunch of editors met together for the purpose of gathering ideas useful to them in their business, for it has been demonstrated that the successful editor can always combine business with his pleasure.
This was proven by one of the editors who came all the way up from Imperial Valley to attend the meeting, who after being at large in the town only a few minutes, came around with a triumphant expression and a new dollar which he had gathered in on the street for a subscription. A town where subscriptions can be accumulated so easily always looks good to a newspaper man.

I was impressed with an idea expressed by one of these editors who has made a success of a daily paper in a small town, to the effect that the weekly newspaper finds no longer any need for its services; a paper must be strictly up to date in order to excuse its existence. The writer who once upon a time thought that a weekly paper was just about the only sort of a paper that was worth while, experienced a mental jolt that made him feel that possibly his former opinion needed revision, and he could only ejaculate, "Well, maybe."

The "Leven Oaks Hotel" is a most attractive place of public entertainment, very largely on account of its appearance of unpretentious com-fortableness, and the guests found the banquet all that their expectations pictured it. The post-prandial program was very informal, presided over by the president of the Association, Hon. Crombie Allen, who saw to it that there were no long speeches.
In the case of the principal speaker of the evening, Montaville Flower, one of the Chautauqua circuit lecturers and a resident of Monrovia, the regret of all present was that he did not have time to entertain his audience at greater length. He spoke for about fifteen minutes, and the writer has rarely if ever heard in a talk of similar length so much food for thought offered to an audience.
Of course his discourse was principally along lines suggested by the present great war. His recital of the phenomenal success of Germany in its propaganda for the spread of German ideas, and his necessarily brief allusion to the methods employed before the war to bring the rest of the world to the Imperial viewpoint, was of intense interest.
To told how Germany's representatives in all parts of the world studied the weaknesses of the various nations and played upon them to achieve her end, with remarkable success in general. The address of Gov-Stephens was also brief, but very much to the point and full of the proper spirit of patriotism. It was published in full in Monday's Evening News.

After the banquet there was the business meeting, which was strictly confined to the interests of the daily newspapers outside of Los Angeles and San Diego in Southern California. There was an election of officers, and Crombie Allen tried hard to get out from under the responsibilities of president, but the members wouldn't have it, re-electing him unanimously.

Keep Faith With Your Boy "Over There"

When your boy was so little that all the world was a foreign country to him, he trusted you to take care of him.

You sent that boy to school and to play and on your little errands, and with implicit faith he did your bidding

Now we have sent your boy or your neighbor's boy out into a foreign land, into terrors that we cannot even know---and his faith has not faltered. He knows we will do our part, and we know he will do his.

Are we keeping the faith? Are we scrimping and saving and giving to help our boys do the thing that humanity has asked of them, and to help them come back to us sane and whole?

JUNE 28th National War Savings Day

Saving to help our sons is not to be called by the ugly name of duty or sacrifice. It is love's blessed privilege.
